

CALL FOR APPLICATION

16th New Faces Conference

“Socio-economic Malaise as a Security Threat – Which Model and Reforms for Egypt?”

Cairo 14-17 June 2012

Berlin 22 February 2012

Dear Candidate,

We kindly invite you to apply for the upcoming 16th New Faces Conference on socio-economic reforms in Egypt. The conference is a project of the EU-Middle East Forum, a program for the advancement of Young Professionals at the German Council on Foreign Relations (DGAP), which is realized in close cooperation with the Robert Bosch Stiftung, the German Federal Foreign Office, the Institute for Foreign Cultural Relations (ifa), the American University in Cairo, and the Freie Universität Berlin Cairo Office. Once you have participated in one of EUMEF's events, you become part of a network that receives information on professional activities of other alumni, grants, scholarships, and other similar programs. And every two years all alumni of EUMEF meet in Berlin for a reunion.

The main protagonists and hence target group of the conference are Young Professionals with at least three years of professional work experience (aged around 27-35) in academia, politics, the private sector, and civil society organizations such as research centers, NGOs or the media, who deal with socio-economic issues. Participants should come from Egypt, Tunisia, Morocco, Turkey, Germany, the UK, France, Spain, Italy, and Greece.

To apply, please submit the attached application form and a one-page outline of your intended contribution to the conference. Please read all attached documents carefully (concept note, application form) as they explain the details of the application procedure and the conference. The application deadline is 18 March 2012.

The organizers will cover accommodation and provide for travel subsidies based on the country of origin (maximum: 450€ participants from the EU, 350€ participants from Turkey, 350€ participants from Tunisia, 450€ participants from Morocco).

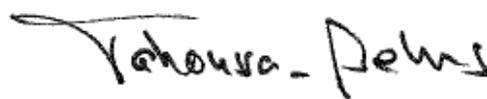

Please do not hesitate to contact us (achrainer@dgap.org) in case you have any further questions.

We look forward to receiving your application.

Sincerely,

Prof. Dr. Eberhard Sandschneider
